FOREWORD

If George Washington could return to GW High and compare it with the same school of twenty-six years ago, he would observe many changes. What was then only an open field by the railroad tracks is today the site of GW's modern football stadium. The building itself has changed, too. A new wing was added in 1945 and now construction has started on the new Jack Tulloch Memorial Gymnasium.

But the biggest surprise would probably come if George were to enter the school and observe the activities. Today GW offers a wide variety of activities in which a majority of the students participate. If George had entered an Astronomy Club meeting in 1935 he probably would have seen the club discussing one of the recent discoveries in the theory of the solar system, or, perhaps, listening to a guest speaker. However, today, the scene would be entirely different. The club would now be planning a trip to the Naval Observatory or viewing a technicolor movie about astronomy. George might then pass a chemistry class in an experiment or the group studying mathematical analysis, hardly comparable to the same classes 26 years ago. One final contrast would be the wide variety of athletics in which the school now participates.

In summary George Washington would find an entirely different school: different in size, different in appearance, and even more different in spirit.

DEDICATION

The Senior Class of 1961 is pleased to dedicate this annual to Mr. Edgar G. Pruet who has guided our activities for the past four years, and the activities of the preceeding classes for a total of almost fifteen years.

Mr. Pruet was graduated from the University of Alabama, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1928 and from Peabody University, Nashville, Tennessee, with a Master of Arts degree in 1938.

Due to his accelerated university courses, Mr. Pruet had little time for athletics during his school years, but he served as both a football and a basketball coach in his early teaching jobs. During these years, he says, he taught "everything but home economics." He often taught as long as ten periods a day. For the seven years prior to coming to George Washington in 1946, he served as principal of Pulaski High School in Pulaski, Virginia.

Here, his duties include planning school policy, making the master calendar, and generally supervising operations of the school.

He is not only the number one Prexie, he is also active in the community. He is a member of the Kiwanis club and a Sunday School teacher at the First Baptist Church. He is also on the Executive Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

His interest in tropical fish is well known to students of GW; we are less aware of his deep interest in landscaping the school, and his "do-it yourself" projects around his home in Fairfax.

This dedication is only a small token of the gratitude which this class feels for its principal.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

During the past four years the graduating class of 1961 has experienced many memorable occasions.

As freshmen, the class of 1961 elected the class officers and participated in clubs and other extracurricular activities. When they became sophomores, the class sponsored the traditional toy and food dances. The class originated the "Bunny Hop."

When they became juniors, they were proud to be upper classmen. Class cards were sold to finance the sending of students Girls' and Boys' State. The class also held a "State" dance and a Christmas dance.

The highlights of their senior year were the annual Senior Day, Senior Play, and Senior Prom. The receiving of their diplomas ended their high school careers.

Jean Webster
SECRETARY

"NOW THIS IS THE WAY TO RUN THINGS," says Stanley Durkee to Jean Webster and John Monroe in the Executive Office on SENIOR DAY.

"OH, AREN'T WE SENIORS FRIENDLY" chuckles Bill Hayden in Mr. Schreiner's class.

Janet Thurman and Priscilla Lainoff wait impatiently for the homeroom bell to ring.

"AND HERE'S A PRIZE FOR THE LUCKY COSTUME WINNER" exclaims Santa Ford to Robin Oyler and Joe Raison.

Fun and Games at the Senior Day Party.

"HEE, HEE, HEE; OUR DAY AT LAST," says Grandma Martha Leef as Jean Webster, Eileen Dunlap, and Vicki Vaughan agree.

JUNIOR CLASS

The 1960-61 Junior Class was one of the most active in many years. The election of the officers and members of the Junior Board started things rolling. Once chosen and assembled, the representatives met every Tuesday morning in room 124 with the sponsors, Mrs. Meadows and Miss Guill. They pushed the sale of class cards as their first major activity. In October, the Juniors held the first Tea Dance.

The annual Holly Hop was held with success in December as a means of making money for sending selected members of the class to Boys' and Girls' State. Shortly afterward, the Junior Class sponsored a fun-filled and educational week-end trip to Jamestown and Williamsburg.

February was the month for another afternoon Tea Dance. With "King Arthur's Court" as its theme, the Prom was held on March 24.

Mac Sexton addresses the Junior Class at an assembly to acquaint the students with the work of the Junior Board.

Mrs. Meadows and Miss Guill are the sponsors of the Junior Class. They are pictured here conferring on class business.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Class of 1963 carried on the activities of the Sophomore Class with vigor and enthusiasm. The class was organized early in the year with the help of faculty sponsors Mrs. Mary Butcher and Miss Mary McKinney. At the class's fall meeting the officers were elected and the year's activities outlined to the class. The sophomores held their annual Food Dance at Thanksgiving, and at Christmas held the Toy Dance for the student body. These dances were conducted to benefit Alexandria's needy families. The Sophomore Class also entered a float in the pep parade on Thanksgiving Eve.

FRESHMAN CLASS

GW's largest class was welcomed to the student body at the outset of school by Mr. Pruet in a special assembly. Soon after school started activities were held to acquaint the newcomers with the school. Student Council members acted as Big Brothers and Big Sisters for the Freshmen homerooms. With the help of Mrs. Mary Moreland and Miss Eleanor Currin, the class was soon a functioning part of GW.

ENGLISH

The students of George Washington High School were encouraged through the supervision of GW's English staff, which consists of eighteen teachers, to enlarge their reading, spelling, writing and oral abilities. The studies of an English student never ceases. He carries on his abilities and knowledge through trial and error when conversing, writing letters and in almost every phase of everyday life. There is always room for improvement in the use of the English language.

MATH

The math department presents students a varied course of studies. One full year of mathematics is required for graduation, but enough math subjects are offered for students to enroll in mathematics subjects each year. Among its subjects, the math department offers refresher math, business arithmetic, plane and solid geometry, trigonometry, and mathematical analysis.

There are nine teachers in the math department. Under the supervision of the department head, Mr. Irving Lindsey, the classes are properly planned and co-ordinated to run smoothly.

The Language Department, headed by Miss Charlene Kiracofe, consists of six language teachers. The Department's newest additions are Miss Marion Stribling and Mr. Donald Nilsen.

Three foreign languages are available to the students of George Washington High School, and they are French, Latin, and Spanish. Three years of each language are offered, but only two years are required in order to receive a college credit for the course. This year the department sponsored an assembly which was given by the Latin students. They also sponsored the French club and the Spanish club.

MUSIC

Music courses are an important part of GW's curriculum. Extensive instruction in choral classes as well as band and orchestra are offered to interested students. Mrs. Mildred Mahoney is director of all choral music. Boys' glee club, girls' chorus, advanced girls' chorus, and ensemble are classes given. Mr. Frank Barr instructs the bands and orchestra. The music department gives several concerts during the year.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

The Business Education Department, headed by Mrs. Watkins Smith, offers various courses in order to prepare those students who wish to work in business offices. The department offers such courses as shorthand, typing, bookkeeping, and office training.

Throughout the year guest speakers were invited to speak to the business classes on different phases of business.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS, VOT, DO

Heads of the Industrial Arts, Vocational Office Training, and Diversified Occupations Departments are, Mr. Charles Drury, Mr. Eugene Noel, and Mr. Floyd Mason respectively.

V.O.T. students attend their first three periods and work the remainder of the day.

D.O. students work in much the same manner attending school for three periods and proceeding to their jobs the remainder of the day.

Industrial Art classes are held in the shop and teach metal, printing, drawing, electricity, and wood shops.

CADETS

Under the supervision of Mr. John Murdaugh various changes were made that were beneficial to the Cadet Corps. To enable the members of the Corps to participate in athletics, they met one period a day. Girl Cadets were abolished this year. The uniform was changed to the regular Army fatigue and combat boots. Class "A" uniforms were worn once a week.

The Cadets marched outside when they were not studying military weapons. The actual weapons are being donated by the National Guard Armory to the Corps.

The Cadet Corps was the color guard in September when the American Legion presented the American Flag to GW.

For the fourth consecutive year, Drivers' Education, under Mr. Joseph Albany, taught the principles of good driving to students. The course was offered in place of Physical Education.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Home Economics department is composed of two teachers, Mrs. Mary Moore, the department head, and Mrs. Phyllis Taylor.

This year Home Economics was offered to the students as an elective course. The girls were taught the fine arts of cooking.

ART

Art classes are held twelve periods a day in order to fulfill the students' desire to study the fine arts and art instruction. These classes help to introduce to the students a love and ability to enjoy one of the great cultures of our country.

LIBRARY

Shelves filled with hundreds of books gave GW a very adequate library. This year many additions were made to it through the purchase of new books. The library had many different types of material available to the student. This material included biographies, autobiographies, novels, references of many kinds and magazines. The library also had a browsing section.

LITTLE HATCHET

The LITTLE HATCHET is entirely a student publication. The magazine is the combined effort of the English, art, and printing departments. Students turn in manuscripts to their English teachers. From these works the best are chosen and sent to the HATCHET staff. These works are then typed by student typists. The art work for the magazine is done by advance art students. After the magazine has been completely assembled it is sent to the print shop to be printed.

Each article in the magazine gives the author's name and the class of which the author is a member.

The magazine is published twice a year, in the spring and fall.

GW's twenty-sixth annual was produced by a staff smaller than in previous years. It was headed by Dixon Rollins, Editor-in-Chief, and Margaret Jones, Assistant Editor. Under the supervision of Mr. Deucalion Gregory, the COMPASS staff met daily during sixth period. Editors of the different sections worked with each other to lay out the book and write the copy.

This year's larger senior section and faculty section were edited by Karen Pfeiffer. Braxton Moncure headed the work on the Junior and underclassmen sections as well as the cadet section. Activities editor Betsy Wanner compiled the COMPASS'S largest section. Under sports editor, Dave Katz, the COMPASS showed the progress of GW's athletes. Assisting all the editors in their layout of the book was Martha Sameth, art editor. Pictures editor Karen Abramson scheduled and cropped the annual's photographs. BUSINESS STAFF

Sponsored by Mrs. Katherine Apperson, the COMPASS ad staff sold pages of the annual to local merchants in order to finance the book. Co-business managers Caren Cogswell and Sue Bowman helped a staff of about twenty organize the COMPASS'S expanded ad section.

Another integral part of the annual's staff was the subscription staff. The members took student subscriptions throughout the year. John Monroe was subscription manager. The subscription staff was assisted by Mr. Irving Lindsey, who handled the finances of the yearbook.

ART

The Art Club held meetings every other Wednesday afternoon after school. It was sponsored by Mrs. Myrick; and at the meetings a variety of films and speakers were introduced. Art workshops were also sponsored by the club and were held on alternate Wednesdays. It was in these periods that the members could perfect their artistic skills with the advice of the club sponsor. The Club sponsored the annual Christmas Door Contest and the Carnival.

BIBLE CLUB

Christmas coroling in the Alexandria Hospitol was one of the many activities performed by the members of the Bible Club this past year. Some of the other activities carried on during this year consisted of reading the morning devotions and leading the blessing at lunch. The members of the club also held their annual picnic and raised funds through bake sales. One of the duties of members is the memorization of the books of the Bible.

The purposes of the club are to study the Bible, teaching the principles of good citizenship and to witness to others peace, faith, charity, and love. Members believe in having respect for all religious sects or creeds, provided that they are based on monotheism.

The morning devotion is being read by Kathy Hurst over the public address system.

CADUCEUS CLUB

The aim of the Caduceus Club this school year was to interest and inform the students in the medical field. This was accomplished by the use of medical films, slides and well-informed guest speakers.

The activities of the club this year were many and varied. In order to help health drives, the club stuffed envelopes and collected donations. A social service project was also given in October, and a field trip to the National Institute of Health was also taken. This year the club was under the capable leadership of Mr. Irwin Prickett.

FRENCH CLUB

Le Cercle Francais this year, under the guidance of Miss Alberta Grant, held a series of varying programs suited to the club. Films on France were shown, and members brought in articles from France for display. A Christmas party was held; and in the spring a luncheon was scheduled for a French restaurant in Washington. The main project of the year was the construction of a scrapbook to be sent to a school in France. The scrapbook showed the different phases of life at GW and was sent through the Red Cross exchange program.

The purpose of the club was to acquaint the members with French life and customs and to achieve its goals through a program of entertainment and club projects. The club provided a more informal atmosphere in which to study France than did the classroom. Members were required to have had at least one semester of French as the initiation was held in that language.

CADET CORPS

Under the leadership of a new commandant, Lieutenant John Murdaugh, GW's Cadet Corps underwent extensive reorganization from top to bottom. The Cadets began wearing a new uniform which consisted of army fatigues. These fatigues will eventually replace the formal dress uniforms. Lieutenant Murdaugh has also helped the Corps acquire a veriable arsenal of weapons, which includes machine guns, pistols, a bazooka, mortar and other pieces of equipment. The forty Cadet members were instructed in the uses and handling of these weapons.

The Cadets performed several duties at GW. They raised and lowered the flag every day before and after school and served as the color guard for the pledge of allegiance during assembly. Marching in the George Washington Birthday Parade also highlighted the year.

One of the biggest Cadet events will be a field trip to Fort Meade in late April. The Cadets will practice field maneuvers there. One of Lieutenant Murdaugh's most important objectives is to bring the Cadets closer in line with the regular United States Army.

RIFLE TEAM

This year's Cadet rifle team was composed of two squads of five members in each. The first squad was composed of the top five marksmen in the team. On the first squad were Steve Pellish, Don Kieffer, Ben Bagot, Dan Andrews, and Marty Devers.

The team planned many matches, but saw most of them canceled due to snow or exams. The two matches which were held were those against O'Connell, which GW won, and a practice match against W-L.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

This year Steve Osisek became the new head football coach. His assistants were Bob Green and Dick Claypool, the former JV and freshman coaches, respectively. The Presidents played an extremely rough schedule facing many top-ranked teams in the Washington Metropolitan area. After poor showings in the first three games, the GW offense began to move; and the result was strong second halves against Hammond and Episcopal. The Prexies lost a heartbreaker to Wakefield but then defeated Stuart 20-13 for their first win of the season. A close loss to Mt. Vernon was followed by a 26-0 shutout over Groveton, which was GW's top game of the season. On Thanksgiving Day, five fumbles and three interceptions proved to be the story of the game as the Generals won and by the victory became state champions.

AWARDS

The Annual Fall Awards Banquet was held for the members of the varsity and junior varsity football squads and the cross-country team. The guest speaker was the backfield coach at George Washington University. Wayne Cunningham, end, received the Dinky Scott Trophy for his outstanding play in the Annandale game. Tom Edwards, guard, was chosen by his teammates to receive the Most Valuable Player Award. Mickey Watts, a junior quarterback, was presented with the Most Improved Player Award.

Award winners Wayne Cunningham, Tommy Edwards, and Mickey Watts.

ANNANDALE 0-26

Once again the Prexies opened their season against Annandale, this year the defending Northern Virginia champions. The Atoms scored early in the first period, but the rest of the half was fought on even terms. However, in the second half Annandale's greater depth proved significant as the Atoms emerged victorious.

McLEAN 0-25

In its second game, GW entertained McLean's Highlanders, a dark-horse candidate for the Northern Virginia championship. In a hard fought contest, McLean's fine block and rock-ribbed defense proved too strong for the Prexies, and the Highlanders won 25-0.

FAIRFAX 6-29

The Prexies now journeyed to Fairfax county where they played the Rebels of Fairfax High. Although trailing 13-0 at halftime, GW fought back and scored its first touchdown of the year early in the fourth quarter on a four yard run by Steve Vermillion. Prexie fullback Bucky Stephens was the game's leading ground gainer.

HAMMOND 6-26

Despite a fine second half comeback in which they outscored the Admirals, the Prexies lost to cross-town rival Hammond in the battle for the "Bell" trophy. With fine running and blocking, Hammond surged to a 26-0 halftime lead; but it met an inspired GW team in the second half and was blanked for the remaining two periods. The Prexies scored on a 60 yard pass play from Steve Vermillion to Wayne Cunningham.

EPISCOPAL 13-45

The Maroons of Episcopal were GW's next opponent. Led by halfback Max Chapman, the Maroons mounted an early lead; however, the Prexies again came back strong in the second half and scored two touchdowns. Both scores came on passes by Steve Vermillion, one to Donnie Seemuller, and the other to Wayne Williams.

WAKEFIELD 7-12

In a heartbreaking defeat, the Prexies lost to Wakefield 12-7. After the Warriors held a 6-0 halftime lead, GW went ahead in the third quarter, 7-6; Donnie Seemuller scored the touchdown, and Bill Marsh added the PAT. The score remained 7-6 until the last three minutes of play when Wakefield pushed over the winning touchdown. Tommy Edwards played a standout defensive game for the Prexies.

STUART 20-13

The GW offense finally jelled, and the result was a 20-13 win over Stuart. After GW had halted a Raider drive on the one half yard line, Donnie Seemuller took a pitchout from quarterback John Craddock and raced 100 yards down the left sideline for a score on the Prexies' first play from scrimmage. With Stuart holding a 13-7 lead near halftime, GW tied the score 13-13 as Seemuller scored again, this time on a one yard plunge. The game remained tied until mid-way in the final period when the Prexies scored on a sustained march of 84 yards. Billy Simpson climaxed the drive by bucking ten yards over tackle for the winning touchdown.

MT. VERNON 0-6

In a hard-fought defensive battle, the Prexies lost to Mt. Vernon 6-0. This was the first time since 1952 that GW had lost to the Majors, and the Jack Tulloch Memorial Trophy was returned to Mount Vernon High. After three scoreless periods, Mt. Vernon pushed over a touchdown with three minutes remaining to win.

GROVETON 26-0

GW's homecoming game was a 26-0 shutout of Groveton. The Prexies opened their scoring early in the first quarter when John Craddock passed to Glen Ruby, who raced 57 yards for a score. Later in the period Donnie Seemuller scored on a short plunge, and GW led 12-0. Midway in the second quarter Ruby again scored, this time on a 40 yard run. Bill Simpson closed out the scoring in the third period with a four yard touchdown run. Phil Miller, Andy Andolsun, Tom Buckler, Jerry Ainsfield, and Vic Mier anchored the strong GW defense

Quarterback Mickey Watts ralls aut against Graveton and picks up ten yards.

W-L 0-40

Optimistic with their second win of the year, the Prexies invaded W-L's War Memorial Stadium for the twenty-sixth annual Thanksgiving Day game. The Generals recovered six Prexie fumbles, which told the story of the day. A fumbled pass from center gave the W-L team their first of three scores in the initial period. Behind 26 to nothing at the half, the Presidents played good ball in the third quarter, holding W-L scoreless. They also mounted their best offense of the game, driving inside the thirty. However, the General defense held the Prexies scoreless, as W-L went on in the fourth period to down GW by the second 40 to nothing score.

JV FOOTBALL

Under a new head coach, Clay Estes, the JV's played an 8-game schedule which included the Yorktown and Flint Hill varsities. They compiled a record of two wins and six losses. The two victories were a 40-0 triumph over Flint Hill and a 19-6 win over Lee. Most of the team's losses were hard-played games, such as the ones with W-L and Hammond. The co-captains for the season were Bill Gorham, end, and John Kemper, halfback.

WINTER TRACK

Although many meets had to be postponed because of bad weather, the Prexie Winter Track Team experienced a successful season. Both the Varsity and Junior teams were undefeated in dual competition, and the latter won the Northern Virginia Championship. GW was led by Bill Seward in the high jump, John Craddock in the hurdles, Phil Miller in the dashes, and Jerry Ainsfield and Ed Lusby in the shotput. Others who contributed to the successful season were Vic Mier and Mac Sexton in the 440, and Wayne Strum in the hurdles. Coach Bob Green was quite satisfied with the season and looked forward to another successful one next year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The George Washington High School Basketball team for the 1960-61 season compiled a mediocre record of 5-15. The team was plagued by lack of experience and height along with the disability of not having a home court to practice on regularly. The squad, under the guidance of new coach Clay Estes, progressed as did the season. After a slow start, winning but two of their first thirteen games, the Prexies came to life in February, winning three straight. Only three lettermen returned from the 1959-60 season, Bob Hungerford, Jim Diamond, and Bobby Philyaw; and they were called on for leadership during the course of the season. During the winning streak, Coach Estes began experimenting with an all junior starting team; and as the season ended, prospects for the following year were bright.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The 1960-61 Baby Prexies were once again coached by Jerry Morris. In a schedule which included several area junior varsity teams, GW compiled a 7-6 record. Jimmy Worden led the team in scoring with a 14 point average; Fred Slight, Jeff Dowdy, Winky Barnett, and John Talbot rounded out the starting team. The top month of the season was January in which the Baby Prexies won seven out of eight games, including victories over cross-town rivals Hammond, Episcopal, and Saint Stephen's.

SPRING TRACK

As workouts began, coach Bob Green seemed optimistic about the coming spring track season. Beginning with the G.W. sponsored Memorial Relays on April 8, the Prexie thinclads started a rugged twenty meet schedule. Things looked good for G.W., as Coach Green had twelve lettermen returning. The team looked strong in the sprints and middle distances, but with only Glen Ruby returning in the mile could have used some more strength there. The field events provided much optimism, as Ed Lusby and Jerry Ainsfield returned to the weights and Bill Seward came back for the high jump. Captain of the Prexies for the 1961 season was Jerry Ainsfield.

VARSITY BASEBALL

With the six returning varsity lettermen, George Washington's baseball team, under coach Nubby Schreiner, looked forward to a successful season this year. These lettermen were part of the team which enjoyed an impressive 15 and 4 record last year. Among them was short-stop Jim Diamond, who was chosen to the All-Metropolitan High School Team of 1960. Out for another varsity season also was pitcher Fred Kerlin, the only returing hurler. Other varsity returnees included, Bill Gorham, Dan Clark, Al Corfield, and Bucky Stephens.

Baseball practice began on March 6 with drills in the gymnasium. The Prexies had about a month of practice before their first game against Stuart on April 4. The season lasted until the W-L game on May 16. With determined playing, GW stands a good chance of winning enough of its fifteen games to enter the Northern Virginia Baseball Tournament, May 19-20.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL

Opening the season on April 5, the junior varsity baseball team easily defeated Episcopal, by the score af 16-4. This victory was very encouraging, and Caach Ricer thought he had good reasan to look farward to a successful year. The schedule included eleven more games after Episcapal, the seasan terminating on May 16 in a game against Washington-Lee.

Heading the list af players this year were Frank Struder, third baseman, John Medlin, second baseman, and Ranny Wilson, left fielder. The pitching staff included Don Maddax, Wickie Steele, and Dave Rose.

VARSITY CREW

With thirteen varsity lettermen returning, coach Julian Whitestone seemed optimistic about the 1961 rowing season. Most of these oarsmen came from last year's junior eight and junior four which finished third and second, respectively, in the National Championships. The 1961 schedule will feature races at Navy and Rutgers, the Stotesbury Cup Regatta in Philadelphia, and the National Championships in Washington, D. C. The Potomac River was frozen when crew began on February 18, and the first workouts were the eight rowing machines given to GW and Hammond by Columbia University. The ice broke up in a week, and crews began rowing in the barge. In another two weeks, crews were in shells, preparing for the first races on April 8.

J. V. CREW

The Junior Varsity crews are made up of the eights below the second eight and the 135 pound lightweight crew. Coached during the season by Sonny Weiners, the crews race the corresponding Hammond and W-L crews weekly.

The highlight of the year for the Junior Varsity crews is the Northern Virginia Championships, held this year at W-L on May 6. The boys can move up in the boatings to the higher crews by making a good showing in the lower boats.

Congratulations
To Each of You of The Graduating Class of 1961

We are very grateful for the privilege of being of service, as your official portrait photographers, toward making this year's "COMPASS" a grand success.
The splendid cooperation given us by the editors, faculty, and student body was highly commendable and sincerely appreciated.

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS:

A Message of Congratulations from Virginia's Oldest National Bank

Although First & Citizens National Bank of Alexandria is the oldest National Bank in Virginia, founded in 1864, we dedicate ourselves to the future.

This year finds graduates at the threshold of tomorrow—entering a new and better world, with more challenges and more rewards than at any time in history. We of the First & Citizens National Bank share with you every confidence in this future.

Many of you, we are sure, will come to know First & Citizens National Bank personally in the years ahead. We look forward to the pleasure of serving you, as a financial counselor, as a neighbor, and as a fellow citizen. We pledge to serve you well.

Our heartfelt congratulations to each of you.

Drop in today... let's get acquainted
